

Marlboro County
Economic Development
Director

Marlboro County, South Carolina is seeking an energetic, results-oriented individual with proven business/organizational skills to lead its county economic development efforts. Skill in consensus building, often with diverse groups in a political environment, is a must. The successful candidate must be detailed oriented and able to achieve results in a small organization with limited resources.

Candidates should have 5 to 10 years work experience and demonstrate progressive achievements in both responsibility and performance. A bachelor's degree in a related field is required and a master's degree is a plus.

Marlboro County is located in the northeastern corner of South Carolina and is bordered to the north by North Carolina and in the south by Interstate 95. The county is strategically located and is situated just 1.5 hours from the South Carolina coast and 3.5 hours from the North Carolina mountains. The 2000 census showed 28,818 people residing in the county.

Compensation for this position will be based on qualifications and experience. The successful candidate will be required to reside in the county and be an active part of the community.

Interested individuals should submit their resumes to: Economic Developer, Marlboro County Clerk to Council, PO Box 419, Bennettsville, SC 29512.

Deadline for submission is November 1, 2010
